RADIO IN COUNCIL ON AGING BUS

Selectmen were informed by the Council on Aging that a $500. CB radio has been purchased and installed in the Council on Aging bus for transportation of the elderly. Both Selectmen William Hubbard and John DeCosta were surprised at the amount involved and checked with Chairman Paul Kelley by phone. Kelley said that the radio was not a CB set but was a mobile unit in the $500 price bracket.

CONFERENCE ROOM DOOR CONTRACT VOTED

Selectmen received two bids to replace the Town Hall Conference Room door with glass doors. Guido's of New Bedford bid was $690.; Roy Andrews of Mattapoisett bid $500. Selectmen voted to accept the Andrews' bid.

LAND TAKING

Selectmen signed the land taking and easement papers involving 9 parcels of land for the pumping station and right of way for the sewer connector pipe to Fairhaven. This consists of takings and easements from Depot Street to the Fairhaven line along the route of the former railroad bed. James & Dorothy Harris' property involves a taking of 2 parcels, .3 acres for the pumping station; Dennis Mahoney & Sons, an easement from Main Street to the Harris plot of .4 acres; a railroad right of way easement license from Shaw Road to the Town of Fairhaven involving 5 parcels, .90 acres, from Reservation Golf Club, YMCA, John B. and

Seniors' Christmas Party

The sixth annual Senior Citizens Christmas Party given by the students of Southeastern Massachusetts University will take place on Sunday, December 4, from noon to 5 P.M. in the SMU residence halls dining room next to the campus center.

More than 600 senior citizens are expected to arrive by bus from New Bedford, Mattapoisett, Dartmouth, Westport, Fall River, Somerset and Swansea.

The party, sponsored by the SMU Student Senate Community Service Committee, will feature a turkey dinner with Christmas cake, Santa Claus, a magician, entertainment by the SMU Chorus, carol singing to the accompaniment of Guy Savino on guitar, dancing to the music of the "Mood" orchestra, and a tour of the campus.

SMU students will serve, host the party and dance with seniors.

Seniors wishing to attend should get in touch with their local Councils on Aging.

Track Club

QUALIFIED FOR JUNIOR OLYMPICS

Stephanie Hiller of the Mattapoisett Track Club has qualified to go the National AAU Junior Olympic Championships to be held December 10th in the state of Washington. Laurie Viera and Kathy Caswell finished 16th and 20th respectively in the 15-16 age group in the Eastern United States Cross Country Championships held in Syracuse, New York. A fund drive has been started to raise money to help defray expenses for the Washington trip which is the club's responsibility. Contributions may be sent to the MTC, P.O. BOX 548, Mattapoisett.

The third annual awards banquet was held last weekend. Over 100 people enjoyed a fine meal, watched slides of the past season highlighted by slides taken at the Junior Olympics in Lincoln, Nebraska. Appreciation awards were given to Win Jenney and Mr. and Mrs. John F. Reynolds. Special Recognition Awards were given to Beatrice Ingram, Gus Scannapeico, Leo Tremblay, Ronnie Moore, and Lance Martin. An Honorary Membership Award Letter was presented to German Exchange Student Claudia Koehler.

The annual trophies presented by Selectman John DeCosta were received by the fol-

The Mattapoisett Track Club would like to thank one and all who have given of their time and money this past year. Because of all of you we have succeeded in completing our third year of service to the youth of the community. Thus far this year we have traveled over 6000 miles to attend meets in which we have brought recognition to our community with over 350 awards, numerous meet records throughout New England and national exposure on network television. Thanks to you we work!

REENACTMENT OF FIRST THANKSGIVING

Rochester Memorial School became the scene of the reenactment of the first Thanksgiving as a culminating activity for the Thanksgiving unit under study in grade three.

The afternoon started with Mrs. Hardy's fourth grade "Indians" being welcomed by Mrs. Norton's "Pilgrims", after which hands were joined and a poem of thanks was recited. The children were then seated for their meal.

Many thanks are extended to Mrs. Sue Silva who planned and prepared the entire feast of turkey, dressing, gravy, mashed potatoes and corn. Also thanks to Mrs. Susan Aaronson for doing an exceptional job of carving the turkey and assisting with the afternoon's activities. Other thanks go to messett Inn luncheon, so that other Seniors who did not make this trip may have a chance to enjoy it. If three or four of you ask for a repeat of a trip, it will be a pretty good indication that a second trip is needed.

Now for the important big bus trip next Tuesday (December 6) to the South Shore Mall in Braintree. This should be a fun trip to one of the largest Malls around, with a great variety of stores and shops and eating places, all enclosed for your comfort, so you will not have to worry about the weather. As there is less than a week before departure, please attend to reservations at once. Call or stop at the Town Hall and ask for the Council on Aging Monday or Thursday between the hours of 10:00 and 12:00 Noon.

Those of us who attended Sunday's performance of the New Wrinkle Theatre at the Keith Junior High School in New Bedford enjoyed an unusual two hours of entertainment with a little drama and lots of variety, as put on almost entirely by Senior Citizens from the Boston area. If you would like to try your hand in a similar project in our area, get in touch with the Theatre Arts Project at the Mattapoisett Town Hall.

"A Thurber Carnival"

"A Thurber Carnival", the fall production of the Drama Club at Old Rochester Regional High School, will be presented Friday and Saturday, December 9 and 10, at 8:00 P.M. in the ORR Auditorium. Including several of James Thurber's finest comic sketches, such as The Secret Life of Walter Mitty and The Unicorn in the Garden, the show's opener (Word Dance) was, in fact, a model for the one-liner format popularized by the T.V. series, "Laugh-In". The play promises an evening of wit, hilarity and music that will appeal to all ages and levels of sophistication.

Women's Alliance

The December meeting of the Women's Alliance, Fairhaven Unitarian Church, will be held on Thursday afternoon, December 8, in the Parish House at 1:30 P.M. This occasion will mark the beginning of the Yuletide festivities at the Church with a delightful program of "An Olde English Christmas".

The meeting will open at one-thirty with dessert and coffee served by the Turquoise Chain of hostesses with Mrs. Stanley P. Neugs, Jeweler, and Mrs. E. Merritt Huckins, Co-Jeweler.

At two o'clock a musical and dramatic program will be presented by the Creative Arts Council of the Church, Mildred Jones Keefe, Director; with music by the Triple Quartet of Fairhaven High School under the direction of Antonio Santos, Director of Music, Fairhaven Public Schools. Three traditional Yuletide customs from the days of merry England will be enacted: "The Hanging of the Greens", "The Stirring of the Pudding", and "The Feast of Lights".

No Show Power

Editorial, D.C.J.

How can Christ be put back in Christmas when nothing is sacred on Sunday? If one were deliberately planning to destroy the whole fabric of a country the procedure would be to cut people loose from basic idealism and respect. Ethics and morality would have to go. Rights would be deliberately confused with license to condone outrage at will. Responsibility would be attacked as representing denial of RIGHTS.

Sunday business as usual has nothing to do with the consumer. If anyone has been inconvenienced badly because stores are not open 7 days a week then they need to rearrange their own lives rather than all the lives around them.

The name of this game is not even greed because few store owners will benefit either. Rather it is one more nail in the lid of our system. A people's strong roots have to be cut in order to change a way of life completely.

There is a way to fight that will maintain peace on Sunday. No one forces people into stores that consume precious energy to stay open seven days a week. We the people are constantly taxed and priced to save energy. Well, let's do it. Let's stop the waste of resources in light and heat that store owners will use on Sunday openings. This waste can be stopped with passive energy. With a massive non-show of customers, a genuine freedom can be salvaged. Those who really want to make the impact felt might do business with merchants who choose to keep Sunday in spite of our liberal politicians who move us steadily along the socialist path to a more perfect system.

FAIR NOEL IN MARION

St. Gabriel's Church of Marion will be having its annual Christmas Fair on Saturday, December 3rd, from 11:00 to 3:30 in the Parish Hall. FAIR NOEL will feature a delicious lunch eon of homemade soup, sandwiches and pies prepared and served by the men of the parish. Lunch will be from 11:30 to 2:00. You can plan to decorate your home with the beautiful green wreaths all artistically adorned, or bring home a pretty dried arrangement or a living Christmas plant in bloom. Gifts of all kinds, toys, aprons, skirts, ornaments, decorated shirts, wreaths for your dog, just to name a few items, will be in abundance made by the clever hands of the boutique and sewing ladies. To help out on your busy schedule, plan to buy your baking goods from the selection of homemade pies, cakes, breads and candy. The children will be able to do all of their Christmas shopping in their own special room where they select their gifts and leave with them all gift wrapped

DUFF PLUMBING ANNOUNCES

We have added another truck to our fleet expressly for the Marion, Wareham & Rochester area residents. We have had such an increase in calls that we have decided to install a direct, toll-free "'Hot Line" for these customers. We have our plumber, Chet, who is a local resident and knows the area well. He will have a well-stocked supply of plumbing needs right at hand.

Are you disappointed to find yourself waiting two days for a plumber, then have him arrive with a helper to carry the tool box, and receive a bill for two men? We pride ourselves on sending one man on service calls.

We take good care of our old customers; it 's new customers we are looking for.

Choral Society Concert

The Sippican Choral Society, under the direction of Mr. Peter West of Mattapoisett, will present its annual Christmas concert this coming Sunday evening, December 4th, at eight P.M. in Tabor Academy's Wickenden Chapel.

The first half of the concert will consist of Johann Sebastian Bach's "Magnificat in D Major" which the 75-member chorus will sing accompanied by a full festal orchestra, including strings, woodwinds, brass, tympani, and organ. Following intermission, the orchestra will perform the Dachelbel Cannon, and the chorus will sing a number of Christmas compositions from around the world, including "O Magnum Mysterium", "Angels We Have Heard on High", "Good Christian Men Rejoice", and "A Joyous Christmas Song".

The audience will then be invited to join the chorus in singing several familiar carols.

Tickets for the concert may be purchased at The Bookstall in Marion, Seaport Pharmacy in Mattapoisett, or from any chorus member.

So, mark it on your calendar now -- this Sunday, December fourth, at eight P.M. in Wickerden Chapel, Tabor Academy, Marion.

other soloists from the chorus singing shorter parts are Beth Sweet, Diane Entwistle, and Rosemary Martin.

Bonnie Pomfret, a resident of Rehoboth, studied at Clark University for two years and in Europe for three years. She is now a student of David Blair McClosky in Boston.

Emily Romney has appeared in opera, oratorio, and recital throughout New England. Her recent appearances have been at Castle Hill, Gardner Museum, MIT, and Trinity Church. As a member of the Cambridge Quartet, she performs frequently in vocal chamber music concerts. She is a member of the voice faculty at the Longy School of Music in Cambridge.

Peter Kronenberg is soloist at the Shrine of St. Anthony in Boston. He has appeared as soloist with the Cantata Singers and the Cecilia Society. He now studies with Jane Struss.

David Ripley received his master's degree in voice from the New England Conservatory of Music where he was a student of Mark Pearson. He is a soloist for the Emmanuel Church Bach Cantata series, the Cantata Singers, and the Cambridge Quartet. He has recently appeared at the National Gallery of Art in Washington, D.C., the Goethe Institute, and Harvard University.

Phyllis Isaacson received her bachelor's degree in music education from Boston University and her master's degree in conducting from the New England Conservatory of Music, where she studied both choral and orchestral conducting. Mrs. Isaacson appears freqently as guest conductor and clinician at festivals throughout New Hampshire, Massachusetts and Connecticut. She has taught music in the public schools of Hingham and Natick, Massachusetts, and has served on the music faculties of Middlesex Community College, Berklee College of Music, and Wellesley College. Since 1970, Mrs. Isaacson has directed the Concord (N.H.) Chorale which has been invited to perform at the National Convention of the Music Educators' National Conference in Chicago in April. This is her second season as Director of Choral Music at SMU.

Mrs. Isaacson said that the performance of the "Messiah" is not only a community service but, in a way, a community project. "Many of the members of the chorus and orchestra are adult members of the community."

Tickets are available at the door, or by calling the SMU Music Department, extension 763, or from any member of the chorus.

HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY'S CHRISTMAS FAIR

The Massachusetts Horticultural Society's 1977 Christmas Fair, opening Thursday, December 1, at Horticultural Hall in Boston, provides a festive way for New Englanders to unearth their ethnic "roots!" Eight different vignettes will showcase decorated Christmas trees representative of Early America, Mexico, Scandinavia, Austria, Russia, England, France and Italy -- a mini-United Nation's salute to "The Trees of Christmas".

Club's Christmas Fair tree will feature wax tapers, decorated cookies, corn husk dolls, gilded egg cups and apples, gay paper cornucopias, popcorn chains, toy soldiers and other trinkets in the boughs of a white spruce.

The Home and Garden Guild of Massachusetts goes south of the border to present a colorful tree representing Mexico, complete with traditional pinata, an earthenware object containing gifts and candy which is suspended above a doorway or from the ceiling in home or courtyard.

Scandinavia adopted the Christmas tree as a symbol of the Yule from Germany in 1741. The Garden Club Federation of Massachusetts offers visitors a tree trimmed with gnomes, felt snowflakes and other Nordic adornments. In Sweden, the Yuletide season extends from December 13, Saint Lucia Day, until January 13, Saint Knut's Day.

The New England Farm & Garden Association decorates the Austrian tree. It was in a little church in Amsdorf in 1818 that the now famous words of "Silent Night" were penned by the parish priest and later put into song by church organist Franz Gruber.

Eggs covered in jewels, gold and silver provide a striking contrast to the greenery of the Russian tree in a vignette by the Garden Club Federation of Massachusetts. Saint Nicholas was chosen as Russia's patron saint almost one thousand years ago as the protector of the weak and poor against the strong and rich.

To display our assortment of old tools the elves are using a fine old Tool Chest, original paint, Pine exterior, with Cherry trim. The interior has five removable drawers hand dovetailed, saw box and rack. Harry says there are tools for quite a few trades represented here. To name a few: the Butcher, the Baker, the Candlestick Maker, the Carpenter, the Plumber, the Wheelwright, the Fisherman, the Shipbuilder, the Policeman, and the Shoemaker. Harry couldn't leave him out. As you know, he and Joe and the Shoemaker have been pals for a long, long time.
